

Race Matters to Rotary

A District 5030 Symposium

Saturday, November 21

9:00AM - 12 noon

Dr. Todd Jenkins is a proud Rotarian and Paul Harris Fellow from the Rotary Club of Fayetteville, Arkansas. He serves as the Senior Diversity, Inclusion and Innovation leader at a Fortune 400 company. Todd was recently selected to join Rotary International's new Global Diversity, Equity and Inclusion Task Force. - Todd will lead the break-out session on diversifying club membership and offer the symposium's closing remarks.

Michael Rousell is a Certified Public Accountant, active community volunteer and devoted Rotarian, currently serving as the Sergeant at Arms for the Temple Rotary South Club in Central Texas. Myke shares his lived experience and outlook with Rotary audiences around the country. He will open the symposium with "Why Race Matters to Rotary: The Way Forward."

Please Register in Advance

Click Here

Interactive Break-out Sessions led by Rotarians for Rotarians:

- Resources for establishing a Club Diversity, Equity & Inclusion initiative. Rotarian co-facilitators: Dr. Paula Houston, Chief Equity Officer for UW Medicine and Jan Levy, retired Director of Leadership Tomorrow.
- Taking Action: What Can Your Club Do Now? Seattle #4 Past President Kim Moore and Former Seattle Police Chief Carmen Best.
- Law Enforcement/Community Relations and Public Safety Solutions Rotarian co-facilitators: Seattle Police Community Outreach Program Managers Felicia Cross and Tony April
- Diversify your Club Membership. Facilitator: Dr. Todd Jenkins.
- Building Education and Economic Opportunities. Rotarian co-facilitators and regional business leaders Son Michael Pham and Tony Ives.
- Partnering with other organizations to promote racial and social justice. Rotarian co-facilitators: International District Past Club President and former Seattle City Councilman David Della and Community Activist Sala Sweet.

Symposium technical support provided by Henry Wong, President, International District Rotary Club.