History of Oxnard Rotary Club

The first organizational meeting of what would become the Rotary Club of Oxnard was held on October 19, 1920, from 12:30 to 1:30 p.m. in the Oxnard Masonic Temple. This meeting was reminiscent of the first meeting of Paul Harris and his friends in Chicago on February 23, 1905, when our founder said he wanted to start a club that “would kindle fellowship among members of the business community.”

The first officers of the Rotary Club of Oxnard were listed as President Frederick Noble, Vice President Roy Witman, Secretary Rudolph Beck, Treasurer Leon Lehmann, and Sergeant-at-Arms A.J. Dingeman. Charter Directors included Achille Levy, Charles Donlon, Leon Lehmann, and Roy Witman.

Through years of Service above Self, Oxnard Rotarians have followed in the footsteps of their club’s forefathers of 1920 and have mirrored the precepts and built from the foundations laid by Rotary founder Paul Harris. During those early years, the constitution of the Rotary Club of Oxnard, California, as Club Number 788 was written followed by the bylaws for the club. As the club continued to grow after 1920, it was proud to sponsor other Rotary clubs in Port Hueneme, Camarillo, Channel Islands, and Thousand Oaks, never forgetting its history and legacy to the Santa Barbara club and those before it.

Members of the Rotary Club of Oxnard have accepted the challenge of the four Avenues of Service—they continue to sponsor a Rotary Interact Club at Oxnard High School, after the first model formed at Melbourne, Florida, in 1962. Scholarships are awarded annually to deserving Oxnard High School seniors and have been awarded to Ventura County Youth Authority students. The Rotary Club of Oxnard helped start the Cub Scout Pack at the former Camarillo State Hospital. In 1953, the Rotary Club of Oxnard co-sponsored the founding of the Oxnard Boys and Girls Club and continues to support this organization through annual contributions. Since 1985-86, Oxnard Rotary Club members have assisted the Oxnard Union High School District in hosting its annual Career Fair. In 1987, a charitable trust was established.

Members of the Rotary Club of Oxnard are proud to join their 1.2 million colleagues in 32,000 clubs worldwide, convening weekly, enjoying fellowship, and carrying on activities demonstrating service above self.
