

You are invited to a community event hosted by the

Do you know someone who is autistic or ADHD?

Neurodiversity can be more than autism and ADHD, and if you work with, teach, or have family members who are neurodivergent, then you know some of the things that get in their way or make life harder.

Dawn-Marie Solais

will be sharing information about a unique event, INAS 2022 Neurodiversity Conference/Convention, that is being held in our area in September and is designed to help all stakeholders. She will explain how your participation could make a big difference for the people you know and listen to your ideas too.

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 10, 2022
FROM 6PM - 7:30PM

Light refreshments will be served.

GENEGANTSLET GOLF COURSE
ROUTE 12, GREENE, NEW YORK 13778

SPACE IS LIMITED!

RSVP to Evelyn Frair by Aug 1st
dekafrair@twc.com or text/call 607-621-8981

(See back for more information)

You are invited to a community event hosted by the

Do you know someone who is autistic or ADHD?

Neurodiversity can be more than autism and ADHD, and if you work with, teach, or have family members who are neurodivergent, then you know some of the things that get in their way or make life harder.

If you cannot attend, or want to know more about the topics and upcoming conference, please visit:

<https://eqsolutionsu2.com/inas-2022-neurodiversity-conference>

The conference/convention offers several sessions (or you can choose all), and virtual options are also available.

If attending this Rotary sponsored event on Aug 10th,
remember SPACE IS LIMITED!

RSVP to Evelyn Frair by Aug 1st
dekafrair@twc.com or text/call 607-621-8981