STANDARDS OF CONDUCT

All campers are expected to adhere to certain Standards of Conduct while at camp. If any camper is found to be in violation of the following standards, his/her parents will be notified and the camper may expect to return home immediately at the parent's expense.

1. In possession or use of illegal drugs, alcoholic beverages or tobacco.
2. Theft, misuse, or abuse of public or personal property.
3. Sexual misconduct.
4. Possession of weapons or firearms.
5. Unauthorized absence from the premises of the RYLA camp grounds.
6. Unauthorized visitation in sleeping rooms occupied by delegates of the opposite sex.

These guidelines are not "all inclusive". The RYLA Staff reserves the right to make adjustments to these policies. Exercising good judgment will prevent occurrences that are not in the best interest of campers. Curfew violation, failure to participate in the activities of the camp, unauthorized use of vehicles, inviting non-campers to visit and disturbing the peace are example of disruptive activities. The discretion of the RYLA Staff will determine which penalties may be imposed.
