

RLI Part 1 – The Rotarian

“The formation of a new club brings change to the old club, forces the existing club to look at its “conventionalities” and often brings about positive change. A newly created club forces its “older” club to become better. Everyone benefits – the community, Rotary International, new members and existing members – from the formation of new Rotary clubs.”

Paul P. Harris, In his address to the 1930 Rotary International Convention

Engaging Members I make my club and Rotary stronger by my active participation. Engaged club members have fun, make friends, and effectively serve. This is why I joined Rotary!

Creating Service Projects I am a vital part of a worldwide service organization of business, professional and community leaders meeting needs in communities. I can build, run and promote service.
