

Be an Inspiration - District 7090 Club Leadership Training – May 5, 2018

8:15 AM: Arrival, Registration & Breakfast in Atrium
9:00 to 9:50 AM: Open Plenary Session with Melisa Schrock, DGE on Being an Inspiration in 2018 – 2019
9:50 AM: Go to Workshops
Time	Room 322	Room 342	Room 412	Room 372	Room 428	Room 320	Room 304	Room 440	Room 442	Room 452
10:00 AM to 11:15 AM	PE: 20/20 HINDSIGHT Motivation tips and inspiration from a panel of outgoing presidents – Reg Madison	CIRCLE THE WAGONS Clever tips for hosting effective board meetings that don't go in circles – Cam Nolan	SOCIAL MEDIA Increase your membership & raise more funds using Rotary's FREE Social Media tools – Paul McAfee & Lisa Mueller	EXPOSED! Hidden secrets to increasing club membership – Kevin Crosby	HAPPENING NOW! How to ensure your club is growing with youth programs – Aad Vermeyden & Mike Taylor	AG: THE BEST JOB IN ROTARY Learn to “Be an Inspiration” to your clubs, with wisdom from 3 AGs who have “Made a Difference” – Tracy Ford	SECOND CHANCES Imaginative ways to re-engage Rotary Alumni – Patricia Johnson	SHOW ME THE MONEY! Fresh fundraising ideas – tips tricks and techniques for success – Ralph Montesanto	A NOT SO PRIVATE EYE Managing Your Club's Image so they will know who you are – Brian Thompson	NEW CLUB FLEXIBILITY How it can attract and keep members – some D7090 success stories – Melisa Schrock
11:15 – 11:30 Coffee Break / Move to Next Session
Time	Room 304	Room 320	Room 342	Room 428	Room 322	Room 440	Room 452	Room 372	Room 442	Room 412
11:30 AM to 12:45 PM	LOVE YOUR SECRETARY ROLE Tools to make your key leadership role manageable - Pene Hutton	GO FIGURE! Finding inspiration to keep the money in order and the Club and Board in the black - Rino Bidenti	ON THE BOARD - NOW WHAT? Key things to know about board governance - Cam Nolan	IT'S NOT A ZOO Tapping in to ways to motivate the different types of Rotary members that make up your club - Anne Bermingham	IT'S NOT ABOUT YOU The importance of really knowing your target audience to drive membership and retention - Amy Gringhuis	VOCATIONAL SERVICES IDEAS When working for free is a good thing – ways that clubs are working in their communities to inspire through Vocational Service – Ralph Montesanto	DOING GOOD IN THE WORLD Unraveling the mystery of The Rotary Foundation. Simple ways to inspire through service, grants and partnership - John Teibert	ROTARY 2.0 What's in it for me? Creative and imaginative approaches to keeping your members engaged and enthusiastic - Kevin Crosby	FIRST IMPRESSIONS MATTER Explore the type of first impressions your club is making – Brian Thompson	THE COUNTDOWN IS ON! Attend this hands on lab for last minute advice and inspiration to complete your Club Central goals. - David Berry
12:45 – 2:00PM: Lunch / Closing Plenary – What is in the Year Ahead?										