Simon Madden

Simon Madden has a unique outlook on what it takes to be successful. He played 378 games for the Essendon Football Club, was Victorian and club captain, played in two premierships teams, and was selected All Australian on multiple occasions. Simon was also President of the AFL Players Association from 1985 to 1989. Simon is regarded as a very engaging and entertaining speaker.

All proceeds will be donated to SALT

Carissa Rash

Carissa is the Relationship Manager for SALT (Sport and Life Training). She looks after the women's sport programs and will provide us with an update on SALT's continued expansion into Victorian sport including women's footy.
