

Rotary Environmental Sustainability Symposium

Friday, April 28 | 9:30 am to 3:30 pm

Cheyenne Mountain Resort, Colorado Springs

*"Protecting the environment and curbing climate change are essential to Rotary's goal of sustainable service." -
2017-18 RI President-Elect Ian H.S. Riseley*

This is an a-political project-oriented symposium to help clubs take action to advance environmental initiatives.

- See presentations on successful environmental sustainability projects from other District 5450 clubs
- Develop your club's next amazing environmental sustainability project
- Receive off-the-shelf projects that are "shovel ready" and can be implemented by your club
- Be one of 3 clubs to win $250 to jump start your next environmental sustainability project
- Find out how to partner with other non-profits to exponentially expand the impact of your environmental sustainability project
- Learn how your Rotary club can be a District, National and International leader in sustainability
- Receive a database of prospective NGO partners, including contacts & other resources to assist your club in its next environmental sustainability project

$15 per person | Make Reservations NOW at www.rotary5450.org – Space is Limited

*"Environmental degradation and global climate change are serious threats to everyone. They are having a disproportionate impact on those who are most vulnerable, those to whom Rotary has the greatest responsibility. Yet environmental issues rarely register on the Rotary agenda."
2017-18 RI President-Elect Ian H.S. Riseley*

Special Message from RI President-Elect Ian H.S. Riseley

A Symposium by the Rotary District 5450 Environmental Sustainability Rotary Action Group (ESRAG)
